Code Corner

Code Enforcement would like to help citizens remain in compliance with the following guidelines for RVs and Trailer Houses:

What is permitted

- A Recreational Vehicle or Trailer House for a period up to 72 hours on public streets is permitted as long as clear vision is maintained for pedestrians and traffic. After the 72 hours expire, the vehicle or trailer must be moved. Failure to do so may result in citation or towing
- Recreational Vehicles or Trailer Houses can be parked on private property for an indefinite amount of time if the vehicle or trailer doesn't cause any obstruction of sight and no one lives in it
- Camping in a recreational vehicle or trailer house on private property on a temporary base must be approved by the City of Carlton with a Temporary Trailer Parking Permit

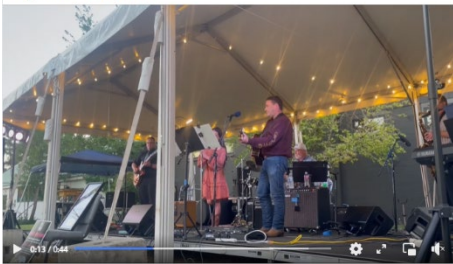

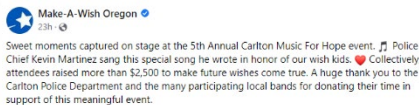

What is NOT permitted

- Overnight sleeping or living in Recreational Vehicles and Trailer Houses on Public Streets at any time
- Permanent camping/living in a Recreational Vehicle or Trailer House on private property without an approved temporary permit
- Permanent storage or parking of utility trailers, house or vacation trailers in yard areas

Music For Hope Fundraiser

A special thank you to Jump At The Sun, Half Step Down, Josh Makosky, Yamhill River Brass and the Carlton Blues for donating their time to raise money for the Make-A-Wish foundation. Also, thank you to Odd Moe's Pizza and Little Caesar's Pizza for feeding our bands.

Additionally, a special thank you to the financial sponsors behind the scenes that made this possible.

“Every day can be a special day for you. Every day can be a special day for someone else. Every day, Let's make the world a special day for all of us. Take just a second and make someone else's life just a little better” (Chief Martinez)

Updates from ODOT

Curb Ramp Upgrades

You may be wondering why we're updating curb ramps – watch our video to learn more about the ADA program and why this is important work.

Construction crews have paused for August, but plan on returning in October.
