Weekly Report

Water

- Water usage has increased dramatically since Sunday June 4th, just a reminder to residents to be mindful of their water consumption as we enter the warmer temperatures. Follow the link below to learn about water conservation in the City of Carlton

Water Conservation and Curtailment | City of Carlton Oregon

- New filter media has arrived for the water plant
- Main Street had a leak that was repaired by the Public Works crew on Tuesday evening

Sewer

- A contractor will be surveying the Headworks project this week
- The fence for Hawn Creek Pump Station is complete, just finishing up on the gate
- The power upgrade for the Lagoons is still waiting on the PGE design portion

Pool

- Maintenance is underway for opening day

Parks

- Wennerberg park is still without power. At this point, it is likely that we will have to wait until late summer before it is restored

Out & About

On Thursday, June 1, 2023, Carlton Officers investigated two juveniles in the upper city park which subsequently lead to an MIP (Minor In Possession) investigation. The juveniles have since been referred to the Juvenile Department for resolution.

On Friday, June 2, 2023, Carlton Officers Micah Steeves and Timothy Jordan joined in some fun at the Yamhill-Carlton Elementary School annual BBQ. The lunch was provided by the school for students and their families. Officers Steeves and Jordan not only joined for lunch, but also some games of basketball to work off the calories
