Weekly Report

On Tuesday, August 1st, the Carlton Police Department hosted its annual National Night Out event in lower Wennerberg park! The community joined in a “Samoan & Hawaiian Island Style” celebration where free food, music and activities were shared by all who attended. Music was provided by the “Carlton Blues” band which included Carlton Police Chief Kevin Martinez and Senior Officer Jake Blair. The band played “island” inspired songs while attendees enjoyed a plethora of free food, games and activities, all of which were provided by generous donors from throughout the community. The night concluded with music and fire dancing performed by the “Paradise of Samoa” group.

Thank you to all who donated and attended the event!
